Accepting 9th and 10th graders for the 2027-28 school year.

Welcoming students of all faiths and academic backgrounds who are ready to grow, lead, and succeed.

Through our innovative Corporate Work Study Program, every student works one day a week for all four years of high school in a professional role at leading companies like Costco, PACCAR, and Microsoft.

The average family contribution is $1440 each year. 100% of CRJS students receive generous scholarships.

Tour our campus, meet our faculty, staff, and current families, and learn how Cristo Rey Jesuit Seattle keeps private, Catholic education affordable through generous scholarships and our unique Corporate Work Study Program.
